LOCATION AND FACILITIES

Wheaton College is a prestigious liberal arts college located in Norton, Massachusetts. It is located 15 miles north of Providence and 35 miles southeast of Boston. It is easily accessible off of highway 495. (1 mile off exit 10)

The camp will be held inside the $12 million Haas Athletic Center. The indoor facilities at Wheaton are considered one of the best in New England! We offer six fiberglass baskets and two full courts in our gymnasium. We also offer three additional full courts in our adjacent field house. Our Olympic size swimming pool is also located in Haas.

There will be a certified trainer on staff all week. There will be a certified life guard on staff all week.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Brian Walmsley (Wheaton Head Men's Basketball Coach) Walmsley founded Basketball Dimensions Inc. in the summer of 1998 and has seen the camp grow from 48 campers to 300 campers in 14 years. Walmsley is in his 15th year as head coach at Wheaton College. His Wheaton teams have won back-to-back ECAC New England Championships. Prior to his arrival at Wheaton, Walmsley served as an assistant coach at Harvard University for six years. He also was an assistant coach at Bentley College for three years. During that time, Walmsley was the director of Bentley Summer Camps. In the summer of 1997, he traveled to Tel Aviv, Israel, to spend a week as co-director of the Adidas-Israel Basketball Camp.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTORS

Steve Motta (Durfee Head Boys' Basketball Coach) Motta has been the associate director all 14 years of Basketball Dimensions. He is currently in his third year as the head boys' basketball coach at Durfee High School in Fall River. Motta served six years as assistant coach at Wheaton College. Prior to his arrival at Wheaton, he spent one year as an assistant at U-Mass Dartmouth, which advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Motta also serves on the staff of Hoop Mountain Basketball Camp in Massachusetts along with camps in Connecticut and North Carolina.

Jon Gibbs (Wheaton Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach) Gibbs is in his seventh year as an assistant coach at Wheaton College. Gibbs is also a full-time physical education instructor in the Cumberland, Rhode Island, school district. Prior to joining the Wheaton staff, he served as an assistant coach at Rhode Island College. Gibbs has previously worked summer camps at Boston College, University of Rhode Island, Providence College, Rider University and Hoop Mountain in Massachusetts.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

Basketball Dimensions has established itself as one of New England's finest "teaching" camps. The camp has set specific goals, and with the dedication of the camp staff we will do our best everyday to do the following:

-  Develop the fundamentals of shooting, passing, screening, pivoting and fast break.
-  Develop the offensive awareness of each player through drilling, team practice, and game competition.
-  Develop team-oriented defense using a building approach bringing players from individual skills to five man defensive play.
-  Involve all players in positive, competitive situations in order to develop their desire to excel and improve.
-  Encourage all campers to have fun, make friends, and enjoy themselves, but most of all to learn and improve their skills.
-  To provide extra individual help prior to and after the camp day to any individuals seeking it.
